Fast Track – Pressure Care Devices
Prescription, Monitoring & Review Program

By Occupational Therapist In
M&G Convalescence Ward, TMH

Choi WY, Lam CM, Cheung HM, Cheung TY
Occupational Therapy Department
Tuen Mun Hospital, NTWC
14th May, 2019
Background

High dependence patients
High risk of pressure injury during

Efficiency  Quality of Care
Objective 1: Improve Efficiency of Prescription
Objective 2: Improve Safety & Ensure Proper Use in Community

- Prescription of pressure care devices
- Instruction sheet on application & signage at ward
- Regular monitoring and review by OT staff
- Carer training on use of pressure care Devices
- Use in community i.e. Home OAH

Need Assessment
Better Communication
Progress Review
Skill Transfer To Carers
Continuity Of Care
Results & Outcome

• In 5/2018 to 10/2018, 255 patients referred for Pressure Injury Prevention Program
• Pressure care devices prescribed 2 days earlier – FASTER
• Proper use of devices and compliance are ensured through clear instructions and monitoring – SAFER
• ALL of them are used continuously in the community and community